been a prisoner over fifty-one consecutive years. In 1831 Billy drove Alexander Crow and wife out of their home, in Spring Hill township. The neighbors came to Crow's rescue, and by strategy, overpowered Billy, who was armed with Crow's gun, butcherknife and axe. Billy was sent to jail at Uniontown for trial. Soon afterwards William Updegraff was locked up for drunkenness, and during the night Billy asked a stick of wood if he should kill Updegraff. The billet said "yes," and Billy crushed in the drunkard's skull. The following June Billy was tried and acquitted of murder on account ard's skulf. The following June Billy was tried and acquitted of murder on account of insanity. For eighteen years he was chained by the leg to the floor of his coll. Since 1848 he has been allowed to roam at will, being harmless. Eighteen sheriff have gone in and out of office while Billy was a prisoner. Four ex-sheriff will serve as pall-bearers at his funeral to-morrow, and the entire bar will turn out. Billy was about 80 years old and was born in England, but seyond this nothing is known of his earliest history. Just before dying he
